Reading The Kidfixer Baby Book is the next best thing. Avoiding what he calls "techno-speak," Altman writes in an informative and often entertaining style. Adding to his book's humor are a handful of James Thurber-like line drawings scattered throughout, the work of illustrator Zacharyl Judd Scheer.

Although this says it is book 1 of the series, there is a prequel novella called "The System" that sets the scene for the series. (That book does not have the character of Mike Falau in it, so it cannot be in the Falau Files series.) I thought the writing in this book was a bit better than in the System, so I was glad I continued on.
